RE: Alp Catering

Dear Sir:

I have been working as a 'best practice' consultant to Alp Catering and have spent in excess of 90-days working with the senior team of the company.

During my tenure with Alp Catering management team, the company has grown based on their client service delivery, food quality, compliance to HSE standards and serving several dozen clients, many focused on the oil & gas and construction sector.

What has made Alp Catering such a success? I believe it is the energy, enthusiasm and dedication to delivering a high level of client service coupled with excellent quality and value of food served. Their operating and HSE standards are as high or higher than those found in North America; their team is young and progressive; and, they see no task that cannot be accomplished.

In terms of the ENI Turkmenistan opportunity, I believe that Alp Catering can deliver the variety of food and service desired. They have the chefs, food preparation and logistic ability to serve your needs very successfully. This speaks to the company quality and expertise.

If you have any questions or would like to talk to the undersigned, please feel free to contact us by email or phone.

Yours very truly,
FHG INTERNATIONAL INC.

To Whom it May Concern:

Please except the following letter of recommendation for Alp Catering. As a general director of Eyyam Group, I have had the pleasure of working with Alp Catering and their team of catering and camp management professionals.

Our company encountered many outside catering companies and I have to say that, Alp Catering is the preferable company to work with. Their teamwork and willingness to assist in all aspects of the foodservices greatly exceeded my expectations.

I can confidently recommend that Alp Catering team will provide excellent catering services requirements and will retain qualified and experienced staff to cater your facilities in a highest manner possible.

If I may provide you with any further information in your consideration of Alp Catering, please feel free to contact me.

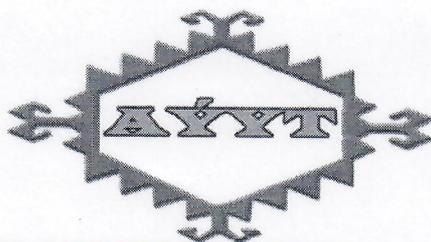

Sincerely,

Rahat CHARYYEV
